cultural venues

- 2 Main Library • The Teen Department hosts the Chibi art show from the Southeast Branch. Second floor: Local photographer Renee Parenteau exhibits her bullfight photography series. Third Floor: Features "Lincoln: the Constitution and the Civil War", a traveling exhibition organized by the National Constitution Center and the American Library Association Public Programs Office with artifacts from The Karpales Manuscript Museum. Plus, the community art project "Imagination Squared" is on permanent display.
- 3 Gallery L • Features paintings by Paul Ladnier, Pam Zambetti, Jack Allen and friends.

Off the Grid is a partnership between artists, property owners, Downtown Vision, Inc. and the Cultural Council of Greater Jacksonville. Off the Grid facilitates introductions between Jacksonville artists and Downtown property owners in an effort to activate vacant spaces in the urban core with artistic energy and provide artists with much needed work and exhibition space. Special thanks to artist, Jim Draper, who inspired this project. Support the local art community and learn more about Off the Grid at downtownjacksonville.org.

- 4 111 E. Bay St. Studios • Features paintings by resident artists Philip Cozma, Dat and Amy and guest artists Eve Albrecht and Ryan Strasser; photography by John Moore, Mike Erdeyll, steel sculpture by Nick D'Agostine; and jewelry by Emily Copus of MLE design. F13RCE Dance Theatre presents ballet and modern choreography by Mayra Fernandez in "Fire and Light" at 7:30 p.m. with guest performers Billy Speed, Josh Yarbrough, Pacci Hopkins and Nick Sacks. 🎵
